

Stillwater Community Arts:

Young Artists Scholarship and Showcase

Young Artist Showcase Application and Materials Due by January 30, 2012

The Young Artist Showcase is a wonderful opportunity for high school aged visual, performing, literary, or multi-media artists to have a chance to perform/display their work in a highly publicized showcase in the Orono-Old Town area. Selected artists will receive a $100.00 scholarship to further their arts endeavors.

Applicants will be judged on their talent, creativity, and ability by a panel of professional artists and patrons of the arts. Artists will be notified no later than the end of February if they have been chosen as a Stillwater Community Arts Young Artist. Following notification, the staff of Stillwater Community Arts will work with those selected to create a joint evening showcase of the artists' works planned for April 28, 2012.

Qualifications: All applicants must be in grades 9-12 for the 2011-2012 school year and reside in one of the following towns: Alton, Bradley, Glenburn, Greenbush, Greenfield, Milford, Old Town, Orono, Stillwater, or Veazie.
